

WELCOME, Bienvenue, Nou kontan wè zot!

Prestige

Come to Martinique and Fall in Love...

Everything is here to see...

The North: wild, dramatic, proudly decked out in luxuriant green. A land of water and fire, tinged with metallic sand. The South: open country, gay with shimmering colors. A land of gentle contours.

Everything is here to smell...

In the morning, there's the fragrance of flowers and herbs glistening with dew. As the day wears on, a delicate mix of aromas wafts through the air, hinting at the fresh ingredients of Creole dishes being prepared.

Everything is here to taste...

The flavors of Martinican cuisine are subtle and complex, a mix of influences from America, Africa, Europe and Asia. It's the world on your plate, whether boeuf bourginon or court-bouillon, foie gras or fish curry.

Everything is here to make you come alive...

Enjoy Martinique's festivals throughout the year. Enjoy the island's traditions, rich patrimony, cuisine, and its vibrant culture celebrated through music and dance.

Martinicans...

A people of mixed origins, boasting a mixed culture, ready to greet the world.

Martinique...

Traditional and modern, steeped in history and up-to-date, magnificent and open-hearted,

Martinique, the flower of the Caribbean awaits you!

Madeleine de Grandmaison
Vice President of the Regional Council
President of the Martinican Committee of Tourism